The order d. 8-9-6 shows that the general question was already under consideration, and the direction that the appln for pension might be resubmitted after that question was decided shows that Govt were prepared to take this case as falling under the decision to be come to. The I.G.'s letter shows that the Committee has recommended the case.

I therefore think that the pension due may be sanctioned as recommended.

As pension has been sanctioned it can be justified only on the above grounds. If otherwise the case under strict rules would not have got any pension at all. Art 2 M.S.R. lays down that the pension of an officer is regulated by the B.I.R. rules in force at the time of his retirement and as appellant was duly retired at a time when the Member did not recognise service in Industrial Schools as qualifying, his case was held not to be entitled for any pension at all. SIR

I have the honour to inform you that the pension recommended on behalf of Iyyaswami Naidu, late rattan instructor of the Government Industrial School, Mysore was disallowed by Government order No. Fl 2010-1 / S&A 719-05-4 of the 8th September 1906 on the ground that the benefit of the pension rules cannot be extended to the kind of service rendered by Iyyaswami Naidu in an institution maintained from Local Funds-General till the general question of treating such service as pensionable is decided.

2. The general question of pension referred to was kept in abeyance till the establishment of the Industrial School on a stable basis. (Vide Government order No. 7317-8 / Ed. 311-06-8 of the 22nd February 1907)

GPB—1,500—9. 6-09

3. It was definitely settled by Government order No 11437-8 / Ed 255-07-2 of the 7th May 1908 that the service of the Industries of the Mysore Industrial School might be treated as qualifying for pension provided the period of their approved service at the recommendation of the Committee is not less than 10 years.

4. Sympaswami Naidu is entitled to his pension in accordance with the above order. The School Committee have recommended the grant of pension to him. I shall be glad if Government will be pleased to sanction the pension recommended to him.

As there is nothing in this Government Order to indicate that it is to have retrospective effect and as under article 2 of Mysore Service Regulations claims to pension are governed by the rules in force at the time of the person's retirement, it is a matter for consideration whether the applicant is entitled to the pension under the Government Order referred to above. Moreover under the Government Order cited above the rattan Instructor cannot, it seems, have the benefit of the Government Order without the recommendation of

Dear Sir,

With reference to your D.O. No.F.L.2575 dated 18th instant there is no other case quite similar to that of Iyyaswami Naidu.

The nearest approach to his case is that of Ponnusamachari, Carpentry Maistry who was granted a pension of Rs.8-8-0 a month by Government Order No. 796/F.L. 7-14-04 dated 8th August 1904.

The next is that of Syed Hussain, Machine Instructor who has served in the school for more than ten years but has not yet retired. His case however will be settled by Government Order No.11437-8/Edn 255-07-2 dated 7th May 1908 when he retires.
